KELLY C. WOOLFOLK, ESQ., LL.M.

Kelly Woolfolk

STRATEGIC ADVISOR · ATTORNEY · EDUCATOR

Ownership, deal structures, and institutional decisions shape who benefits from creative work.

SIGNATURE TALKS

Who Owns Culture?

Deal structures and the creative economy.

From Talent to Enterprise

Ownership literacy for creative communities.

Building Creative Economies

What governments and institutions can do.

ABOUT

Kelly Woolfolk is a strategic advisor, attorney, and educator, and Founder and Principal of Culture Counsel, P.C. Her work sits at the intersection of culture, business, law, and the creative economy, with a focus on institutional and ecosystem design. She is the creator of Creative Capital Lab™ and a 2026–27 Fulbright U.S. Scholar to Kenya, based at United States International University–Africa.

J.D., Howard University School of Law · LL.M. in International Law, with honors, Berkeley Law · B.A., Spelman College

AUDIENCES

Governments & ministries
Universities
Corporations
Festivals
Cultural organizations

FORMATS

Keynotes, panels, workshops
In person or virtual
Based in Nairobi, travels globally

RECENT ENGAGEMENTS

AfroCannes
2025

Inkwell Beach at Cannes Lions
2026

BESLA Annual Conference
2025

SELECTED HIGHLIGHTS

Disney
GLOBAL DISTRIBUTION

Berkeley Law
FORMER FACULTY

Fulbright
U.S. SCHOLAR, KENYA

U.S. EEOC
MEDIATOR

Cannes · BESLA
INVITED SPEAKER

Check availability

culturecounsel.net

CULTURE COUNSEL, P.C.
BASED IN NAIROBI · WORKING GLOBALLY

Culture Counsel provides strategic advisory and mediation services. Legal representation is offered only under a separate written engagement.